SAVANNAH, Ga. - Armstrong State University senior setter Kamryn Sherman has been named the Peach Belt Conference's volleyball Specialist of the Week, announced today by league officials.

Sherman led the Pirates to three straight wins last week, extending the school's regular season Peach Belt winning streak to 32 matches, second-longest in league history. The senior setter from Ponte Vedra, Fla., averaged 12.00 assists and 1.90 digs per match, adding nine aces, seven kills and five blocks. Sherman opened with 42 assists and nine digs against Francis Marion on Wednesday, then added 41 assists with six aces against Columbus State and had 37 assists against Montevallo, helping snap the Falcons' seven-match win streak.

The Clemson University transfer has moved into second in the PBC in assists with 10.54 per set on the season and she also ranks seventh in service aces per set. This is the first weekly honor for Sherman as a Pirate.

Armstrong returns to action on Wednesday, October 1, visiting UNC Pembroke for a 7:00 p.m. Peach Belt Conference match in Pembroke, N.C.
